Cyprus has all the tools to become a destination that respects the environment, Deputy Minister of Tourism Savvas Perdios said on Wednesday, adding that recent Eurostat statistics show that around 38 per cent of Cyprus is comprised of protected areas.

Speaking at the celebratory event of the "Keep our Sand and Sea Plastic Free" project that took place in the afternoon at Malama Beach Holiday Village in Protaras, Perdios said that it is important for the Deputy Ministry to have such initiatives "since one of the five pillars of the National Tourism Strategy is for Cyprus to become a...
